

Plan Board Asks Sanitary Code

A petition asking the Hamlin City Council to adopt an ordinance to eliminate health hazards in abolishing open outside toilets was adopted unanimously by the Civic Planning Board at its meeting Monday evening.

The petition was passed following discussion of the situation and the suggestion that a model can be secured from the state health department, together with suggestions for enforcement.

Following a lengthy discussion of proposals for an annual event for Hamlin, the matter was postponed until the October board meeting, when it is expected some plan will be adopted.

The plan discussed Monday evening was one for staging an annual homecoming for all former graduates of Hamlin High School, in which various programs for entertainment would be offered.

It was proposed to include in the homecoming an exposition of products grown or manufactured in and near Hamlin, with exhibits of handcraft and hobbies included.

Delegates from the various organizations agreed to go before their clubs and ask for instructions as to type of program desired in the annual entertainment.

A committee was named to see the city council and find out if the streets leading to the football field can be put into better condition for the fall season.

The petition adopted and presented to the council this week

read: "We the undersigned, members of the Hamlin Civic Planning Board, and representatives of various clubs and organizations in Hamlin, respectfully submit this request, to-wit: that adequate sanitary ordinances be adopted in Hamlin to eliminate the menaces to the health and safety of our city now constituted by the open, outside toilets, which are in use in many places.

The petition was signed by Mrs. R. D. Moore, Women's Literary Club; Mrs. Tom Teague, Hamlin Garden Club; Haskell Carter, Chamber of Commerce; Travis Hash, Lions Club; Mrs. Ross Pomy, VFW Auxiliary; T. W. McGuire, Fire Department; Mrs. Brad Rowland, Legion Auxiliary; Mrs. Bill Thompson, Firemen's Auxiliary; Mrs. John C. Bryant, Beta Sigma Phi; O. T. Kelley, Parent-Teachers Association, and I. R. Huchingson, Hamlin schools.

Life of Anson Jones Reviewed for Lions

A review of the latest book on the life of Anson Jones, last president of the Texas republic, was given at the Tuesday noon luncheon meeting of the Hamlin Lions Club. Mrs. E. A. Hefner of Anson gave the review.

Mrs. Hefner traced the career of the man for whom Jones County and its county seat were named, and discussed the events which helped shape his personality.

First Fall Weather Brought Good Rain

First cool spell of the 1949 fall season brought with it steady rainfall that deposited 1.53 inches of moisture in Hamlin, according to records in the City Pump Station.

The rain began falling early Tuesday morning and by noon had registered .45 of an inch. Intermittent showers during the afternoon and Tuesday night brought an additional 1.08 inches to make a total of 1.53 inches.

Rainfall this week brought total for the year to 22.66 inches in Hamlin.

Good Fights Are Seen in First of Lions Club Bouts

Hamlin fight fans were treated to a good show in the first bout sponsored by the Hamlin Lions Club in the High School gymnasium last Thursday evening.

A crowd of more than 300 fans attended the fights and most of them seemed to be enthusiastic for regular bouts in Hamlin.

Several good preliminaries were staged before the main feature of the evening, which was a fast fight between Golden Gloves Champion Tom Adams of Hardin-Simmons University and Carl McInturff, former Marine Corps Pacific Coast champion.

In the school boy preliminaries Guy Weaver decisively won Kevon Rogers. Weaver took the first and last rounds while Rogers tied his opponent in the second.

One of the best bouts of the evening, boxing enthusiasts said, was the fight between Polk and Van Zandt. Hamlin colored fighters. Polk took the decision with 60 points to 56 for Van Zandt. The first round was a tie, but Polk outpointed his rival in the last two.

George Washington danced to a tie decision with Tom Asbury, both colored, in a dull exchange of light taps. Neither of the men seemed anxious to mix it up. Washington, long and rangy, seemed to have the edge over the shorter and lighter Asbury, but failed to push it.

Back to the school boy class, Hymer and Adams fought furiously throughout the three rounds to win a tie decision from the judges. Both boys were given 60 points.

Dick Green and Harlan Lang also emerged as equal battlers in their scrap. The first round was a tie, Lang won the second, and Green was awarded the third.

"Country Boy" Poor and Bob Robinson, both of Abilene, gave a good exhibition, which was judged a tie.

In the first feature of the evening Doyle Dobbs of Abilene swapped leather with Cotton Fowler of Hardin-Simmons, former TAAF champion, and held the H-SU man to an even decision.

Outweighed by more than 20 pounds, and matched against a fighter who is said to be second best in the nation in his weight, Carl McInturff of Hamlin made Tom Adams of Hardin-Simmons work for every point awarded him in the three-round battle.

Early in the first round McInturff landed a hard right to Adams' face, causing the champion to back up and shake his head. The blow brought blood to Adams' nose.

A hard right by Adams landed under McInturff's heart and slowed down the local fighter. McInturff said later it was as near as he has ever come to being knocked out.

Judges' decision gave the battle to Adams with 60 points, while McInturff was given 52 points.

CITY MAIL DELIVERY SOON...

Street Markers Expected to Be Here By October 1; Most Numbers Sold

Inauguration of free city mail delivery in Hamlin seemed a near probability this week when B. V. Newberry, chairman of the joint Rotary-Lions Clubs committee, said street markers are expected to arrive in Hamlin about October 1.

The markers were ordered last week, and the committee was promised delivery within a few weeks, Newberry said.

A total of 115 markers were bought on the initial order, but the committee plans to add other markers as soon as funds are available for the order.

The markers will be erected as soon as they arrive, Newberry said, and it is hoped to have them ready for postal inspection by October 15. Final approval of the postal inspectors will be necessary before Hamlin is approved for postal delivery.

Cost of the markers will be paid from funds collected by sale of house numbers. The sale of the numbers, which lagged for several weeks, has been accelerated and is expected to be completed within the next few days.

Newberry urged those committee-men who still have numbers to complete their work as quickly as possible and turn in the money to his office for deposit in the special fund.

Joe Culbertson Named Director Of State Group

Joe L. Culbertson of Hamlin, was elected a director and vice president of the Federation of Texas National Farm Loan Associations at the federation's sixth annual meeting in Fort Worth Monday.

Culbertson has been serving as vice president of the Jones County National Farm Loan Association, and long has been active in farm loan affairs.

The federation is a state-wide organization of local credit agencies which Federal Land Bank loans are made available to farmers and ranchers throughout the state. There are 142 of the associations in Texas.

Others from Jones County who attended the federation meeting are D. W. Crumpler of Anson, president, and Joe Breed, of Anson secretary-treasurer of the county group.

In announcing Culbertson's election, Breed said, "We feel it is an honor to have one of our local citizens selected for this high position in a system that has rendered such broad and helpful service to so many farmers and ranchers in the state."

Woodman, Spare That Tree! was written by George Pope Morris.

The new markers will be erected in the business district and part of the residential area, Newberry explained. They will appear on the entire proposed route for mail delivery as outlined by the post office department.

It is hoped, he said, that additional markers can be ordered immediately to complete the work of marking the entire city.

Abbott Is Named Prexy of Hamlin Golf Club Group

Chuck Abbott was elected president of the Hamlin Golf Club in a reorganization meeting of the group reorganization meeting of the group Tuesday evening. Abbott has been active in affairs of the club for several years.

Lester Morton was elected secretary, and Carl Young, Sam Ferguson and E. C. Feagan were named directors.

A membership drive was voted, in which memberships which ordinarily cost $25 will be sold for $10, Feagan said Wednesday. It is hoped to increase membership of the club from the present 30 members to at least 60, Feagan said.

The golf course has been cleaned up, the greens smoothed down and some trees cut out. A small tractor and a power mower have been purchased for use in keeping the golf course in proper condition.

A handicap tournament for members of the club only will be held early in October, the exact date to be announced later.

Rawlings Is Speaker At Rotary Meeting

Lee Rawlings, minister of the Hamlin Church of Christ, was principal speaker at the Wednesday noon meeting of the Hamlin Rotary Club.

The minister talked on getting the proper sense of values in life, and pointed out that Christianity offers the only course for true profits in living. The necessities of life, he said, are assured those who follow the Christian way, and many other values are brought to enrich the lives of its followers.

James Eddie Jay, son of Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Jay, was elected pianist for the club to replace Miss Janet Bonner, who is now attending Abilene Christian College, Abilene.

The Rotary District Governor will be a guest of the club at next week's meeting, it was announced, and all members are urged to attend. A meeting of committee heads will be held at 10:30 next Wednesday morning in the office of C. G. Green, and the board of directors will meet Thursday evening in the office of J. C. Turner.

Pied Pipers Bop Bulldogs Friday

Hamlin Team Rated as Underdogs in Game With Spur Squad Friday; Team Works Hard

Flushed with the taste of a decisive victory in their first game, the Hamlin Pied Pipers settled down to hard drilling this week in preparation for what they believe will be one of the hardest games in their fall schedule, when they meet the Spur Bulldogs on Piper Field Friday night.

The Pipers romped to victory over the surprised Stamford Bulldogs with a score of 16 to 0, following an uneventful first half.

During the first two quarters the game was a see-saw affair in the center of the field, with neither team seeming to have an advantage. A skull session with Coaches Red Burditt and Vernon Townsend during the half intermission pumped new determination into the lethargic Pipers who went into the third quarter with renewed vim.

Early in the third Hamlin recovered a punt fumbled by the Bulldogs. Joe Allen Dean, co-captain for the Hamlin team, tossed a 25-yard pass to Asa Goodgame, all distributed, to set the ball on the visitor's four-yard line. Dean passed over the stripe to Don Rowland for the Piper's first counter. Dean's try for conversion was good and the score was 7 to 0.

John Holland, co-captain, blocked a Stamford punt a few minutes later to set up the play for Hamlin's second touchdown. Dean carried the ball to the 10-yard stripe, and Sugar Green, right halfback, circled left end to carry it across. Dean again made good on conversion.

A safety late in the quarter added two more points to Hamlin's tally to count for the final score.

Both teams took to the air in the fourth, but efforts at scoring were futile.

Twice Stamford threatened the Pipers during the fourth when they worked the ball to within less than a yard of the Hamlin goal line, but the line failed to yield and the Bulldogs were held scoreless.

Billy Sutherland, Hamlin center, and Hub Hopper, reserve guard, were outstanding in defensive plays for Hamlin.

Most of Burditt's reserve string saw action during the game, which permitted numerous substitutions after the Pipers forged ahead of the visiting eleven.

In first downs Hamlin led the Bulldogs 9 to 4. The Hamlin team made 146 yards in rushing to 62 for Stamford. Punt average for Stamford was 34 and the Pipers averaged 32. Hamlin gained 56 yards by passing and Stamford gained 44. The teams averaged approximately the same in weight.

A crowd of almost 2,000 people from both Hamlin and Stamford filled Piper Stadium for the opening contest, and between halves entertainment was offered by the Bulldog band and the Piper Pep Squad.

Burditt said this week that the Pipers are going up against one of the strongest teams in this area Friday night when they face Spur. The Spur team yielded a reluctant victory to the Haskell Indians last Friday night 19 to 6.

Outweighed by an average of 20 pounds, the Pipers are expected to resort more to speed than to brawn in the tussle. Burditt said he believes the Spur Bulldogs was the best team played by the Pipers last year. And they are just as strong this year, he added.

County Scouters To Map Program In Anson Meeting

Boy Scout leaders and committee-men from Jones County will meet in Anson in the Memorial Hall, Tuesday evening, September 20, to map plans for the National Roll Call and Uniform Inspection of scouts, Dale Hewgley, field executive, said this week.

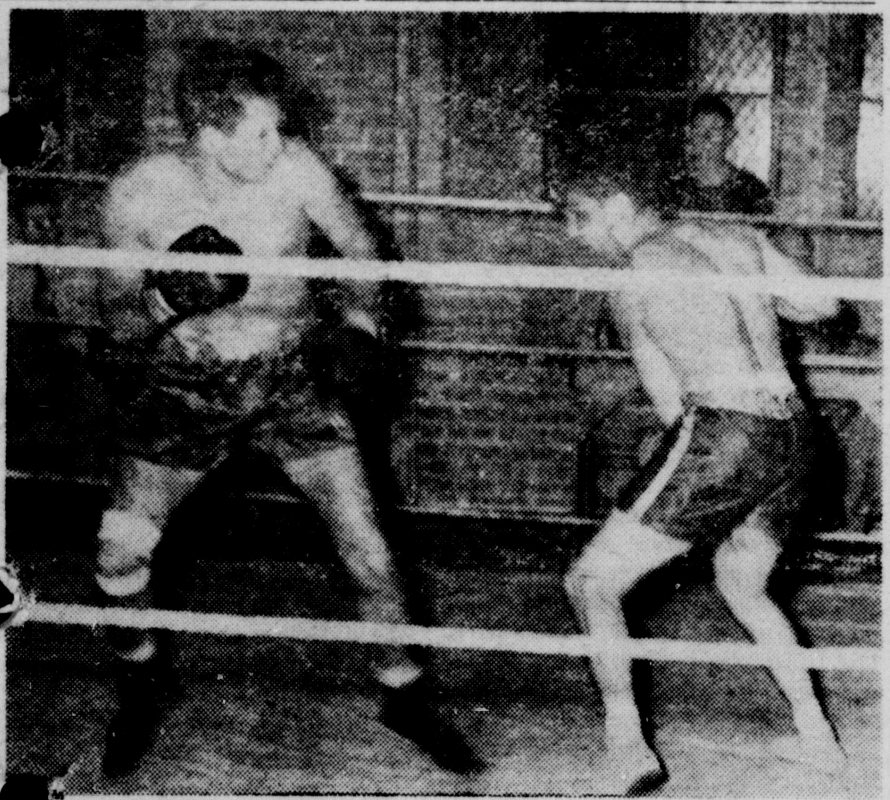

The National Roll Call is a feature of the Boy Scout crusade to strengthen the arm of Liberty, Rae Eastland, Jones District Scout Commissioner, said this week.

The roll call and inspection will be dramatized by H. R. Ounklin of Avoca and Harold Bonner of Hamlin, local commissioners. Officials will be scheduled to visit each pack or troop at one of their regular meetings.

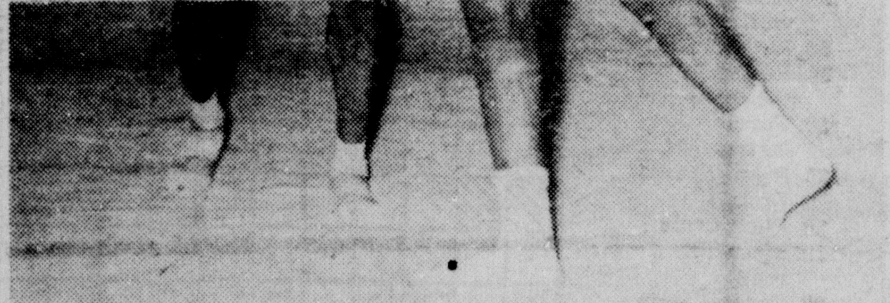

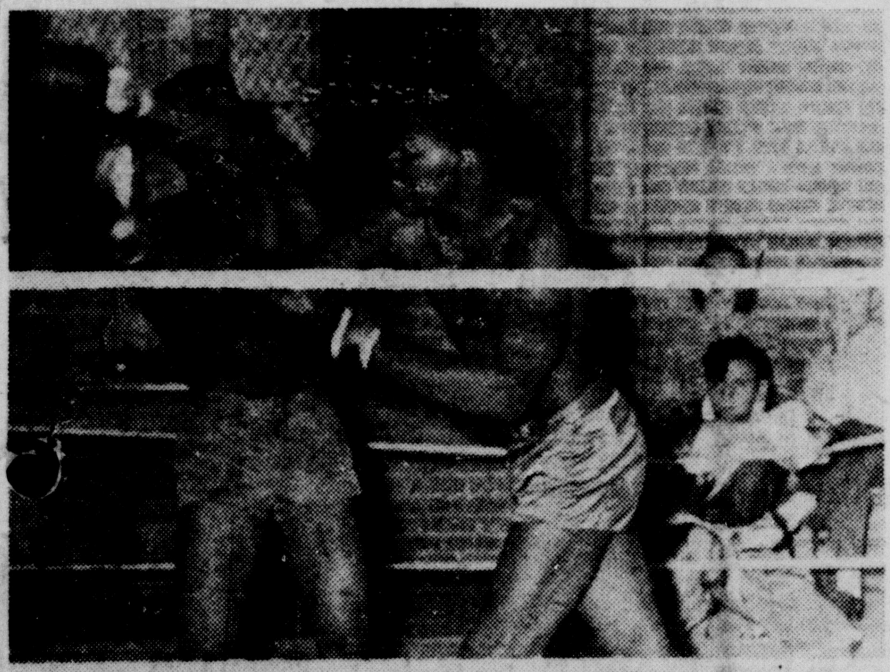

Discussion groups on the recent age change in the scout movement will be conducted. Boys may now become cubs at eight, scouts at eleven and explorers at fourteen.

Program planning materials for the year will be provided for the Cubmasters and Scoutmasters who attend the meeting.

Roy Mays, board member of the Chisholm Trail Council, will be host

A tense moment in the feature fight of the evening last Thursday is shown here, shortly after big Tom Adams landed a hard blow to the ribs of Carl McInturff. The Hamlin battler, hurt by the heavy punch under his heart, paused for only a moment, before he again tied into his heavier opponent. (Photo by Nell)

Lots of leather was thrown in the bout between Polk and Van Zandt, both from Hamlin. The two boys battled hard throughout the three rounds, with a decision two points advantage going to Polk. Evenly matched, fighters said they would like to try it again.

Mrs. Fredonia Lemonds of Wewoka, Oklahoma, will be the evangelist in charge of services in a revival meeting to be held in the Assembly of God Church here beginning Sunday night. The meeting will continue for two weeks or more, Rev. G. R. Underwood, pastor, said this week. Services will be each evening at 7:45.

Is It Worth the Cost?

Numerous complaints have been made by parents during the past week of motorists who drive too fast when passing Hamlin's schools, especially during the noon hour and at closing time in the afternoon. At those hours students have been released and many of them dash incautiously across streets and highways.

Though the mercy of God Hamlin has been spared a tragedy like that which happened at Haskell last week. So far no child has suffered either death or damage through contact with speeding cars. But, the law of averages decrees that such good fortune cannot continue.

Drivers of automobiles, who are in such great haste, ought to take routes that will not pass directly by a school. They ought to be more concerned about the safety of children who are inclined to be forgetful of safety regulations.

No driver willingly runs down a school child. None of them would wantonly cripple or kill any pedestrian, and yet the result is the same, after an accident, as if the driver had started out with malice to kill or maim his victim.

Is the mission you are going on so important that the life of a Hamlin school child—any child—unimportant in comparison? Are you in such a hurry to get where you're going that you are willing to expose helpless and innocent children to grave danger?

No trip that you can take ranks in importance with the life of even the most humble child. You, yourself, would spend a lifetime of remorse and self recrimination if your car should become the weapon to hurl a tender young life into eternity.

Why not slow down before an accident happens, rather than waiting until some poor child is mangled and crushed to use precaution?

Surely, speed isn't worth such a cost!

Fruits of Our Folly

The dearth of cotton pickers in Texas probably is a direct result of the fruits of our own folly.

For years and years towns and villages and hamlets throughout the broad expanse of our great state have given cool receptions to people of other races, and especially to those whose skins were of darker hue than their own.

Both Mexicans and Negroes have been humiliated, defrauded, ridiculed and seldom granted justice in any controversy with white people, until, even their long-suffering patience was worn thin.

Here in Hamlin we preach one kind of democracy and practice another. We teach one kind of Christianity and shape our actions by an altogether different kind. We like to wax eloquent about freedom of opportunity and equal rights, but in practice we deny to our darker skinned friends both opportunity and right. We like to proclaim that "God so loved the world," and speedily we indicate by our acts that we believe in our own hearts He loved only the white race.

Neither Mexicans nor Negroes could be blamed if all of them turned their backs upon the pleading cotton farmers and refused to lift their hands in this hour of need.

But, being of generous and forgiving nature, most of them will answer the plea and come forward to assist, even though they may suffer many humiliations at the hands of those they help.

Johnson Says Economy Drive to Fail Unless Public Forgets Selfish Aims

By Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson

Secretary of Defense Louis Johnson made history — and enemies — two weeks ago when he pared 137,000 Government workers from the payroll of the National Military Establishment.

This action marked the first occasion since the end of the war that a Department head in the Federal Government has voluntarily dismissed so many workers for no other reason than to save the tax-payers' dollars.

Secretary Johnson estimates that the August dismissals should save $500,000,000, or half-a-billion dollars. He intends to save more than a billion before he finishes this economy drive.

Everybody Favors It

Ordinarily, it might be expected that Secretary Johnson would be applauded and acclaimed for what he has done. Nothing has been sought more diligently, promised more often, or demanded more firmly than "economy in government." Everybody is in favor of it, they say, and nobody is opposed to it.

But Secretary Johnson is not being hailed as a "hero" for what he has done. He has put himself in the unenviable position of saving more dollars and losing more friends in a single day than any other public official in many years.

Secretary Johnson's effort to save half-a-billion dollars reached into nearly all the 48 states. It meant that military installations in many cities will be closed down, that workers thousands of miles from Washington will be out of jobs. That, apparently, is not the kind of economy most of the loud-spoken economy advocates have been asking for; they have received Secretary Johnson's action coolly and even angrily.

Nobody Takes It

The truth of the matter is that economy is somewhat like castor oil—everybody prescribes it for the other fellow, but nobody takes it unless it is forced down.

Louis Johnson poured a stiff dose of castor oil down a lot of people, and he didn't provide any orange juice to kill the taste.

Personally, I hope the Secretary will hand out more doses of the same medicine and that other officials will take courage and do likewise. The only sure way to cut Government expenditures is to economize first and explain later.

From my own experience, I have found that the greatest obstacle to economy is, oftentimes, the group of people who wail loudest and longest for economy.

One day a Congressman or a Senator may receive a bluntly-worded letter from a group of prominent constituents demanding that he stop "this foolish, wasteful spending in Government." In threatening tones the constituents will write: "We will be watching your voting record to see whether you are looking out for the tax-payers or the bureaucrats."

Ask Money for Local Project

Next day, the same Congressman or Senator will receive an equally blunt letter from the same group of prominent constituents demanding that he get a $10,000,000 bill passed for some purely local pet project that is dear to their hearts.

What is the man in Congress to do? If he is true to the tax-payers, he will refuse to sponsor the bill pouring $10,000,000 down the drain in his home district. If he refuses to sponsor the bill, though, the voters—yes, the tax-payers—will vote against him in the next election and send some man to Congress who is pledged to vote for economy everywhere except in the home district.

Don't Fire "Aunt Minnie"

The same story could be told over and over. Every member of Congress receives an armload of mail each week demanding that the bureaucrats be "driven away from the public trough." So, the Congressman votes to reduce expenditures in some department and the department is forced to dismiss several thousand workers. In the next mail, more letters pour in by the sackloads telling the Congressman that "Aunt Minnie" has lost her job with the Government and something's got to be done for her—quick.

So long as the "bureaucrats" are merely unidentified statistics, everybody wants to fire them, but when a fired "bureaucrat" turns out to be somebody's Aunt or Brother or Cousin, everybody loves them.

What many people do not realize is that the "Government" which they consider bad and wasteful in Washington is the same "Government" which they consider good and indispensable when it spends money in their own backyard. If Government spending is to be cut, those cuts will be felt first at the forks of the creek—where the spending is done, not here in Washington where the spending is merely planned.

If the voters really want Economy—and I believe they do—they must prepare to accept the effects of it right at home, perhaps even in their own pocketbooks. That, I know, is easier said than done. Very few men walk into their boss's office and ask for a cut in their paycheck, even though they know the firm would be in better financial straits if expenses were cut.

It is a futile and empty gesture to demand that public officials cut expenditures, then criticize them

Dr. Haake Defends Rotary Club for Dropping 'Slogan' About Profiting

By DR. ALFRED P. HAAKE

A number of editorials have criticized Rotary International for dropping the time-honored slogan, "He profits most who serves best." And there has been some shrieking with joy because now even the conservative Rotary Clubs have joined in the procession of those who damn and would do away with profit.

Both are wrong. Neither apparently took the trouble to get the truth. Rotary could not drop the slogan because it has never been the official slogan, was never adopted by formal and official action. In 1910 Arthur Frederick Sheldon coined the phrase in talking to a Rotary Convention. The phrase caught the fancy of thousands of Rotarians and, informally and unofficially, it became a slogan. Even Rotary International used it on printed matter.

On at least two occasions effort has been made to discard the slogan. A resolution to that effect was offered in the Dallas Convention in 1929, and rejected. The Rotary Club of London, England, came up with a similar resolution in New York this year, and withdrew the resolution when it learned that the Board of Directors of Rotary International had instructed the secretary to cease using the slogan hereafter on printed matter, although anything on hand could be used up. The ground for this action was the difficulty in making accurate translation of the slogan.

The present status is that Rotary International has taken NO action or position on the word "profit," the "profit motive," or the "free enterprise system." It has NOT taken any action which restricts Rotary Clubs anywhere in the world from using the slogan. Any club is free to use that slogan on its letwhen the cuts strike close to home. We can have economical government, we can save much more than the $500,000,000 Louis Johnson has saved—but that goal cannot be realized without the unselfish and wholehearted support of the people who elect men to public office.

In the final analysis, this economy drive—or any economy drive—will result in some hardships both to communities and to individuals. When you deal with billions of dollars and hundreds of thousands of employees, it is impossible to anticipate the result of each dollar saving that is made.

But we should remember this: the hardships of economy are not likely to be so severe nor so permanent as the hardships of waste. Economy may be bitter medicine but it is necessary to cure the deadly, crippling disease of waste.

What Louis Johnson has done should be an example to all government officials. They should borrow some of Secretary Johnson's forthrightness and much of his courage to accomplish in other departments and agencies this same, sensible and essential economizing. The United States will have a better government and a healthier domestic economy, if prudent economy is recognized as a virtue and not a fault for high officials.

terhead or anywhere else. In the opinion of this writer, Rotary International directors acted wisely in forestalling debate on the merits or demerits of the slogan, as could easily have followed in discussion of the proposed London resolution. After all, Rotary International is, as the name plainly says, an INTERNATIONAL organization, and the United States delegation was only one of a number who had the right to determine the policies of Rotary International as an international organization.

However, within the United States, and as an example to our foreign cousins who might well benefit and PROFIT from the example of our profit and loss system by its adoption in their countries, we can do as we please about the slogan.

The use of the word "profit" need frighten no one. Jesus of Nazareth used it in the same sense that it was used many years later by Arthur Frederick Sheldon. What shall it profit a man if he gain the whole world and lose his soul. And that man will profit most who serves best, a truth which Jesus Himself taught and illustrated beautifully in the parable of the talents.

Even in modern translations of the New Testament, there is no change in the word "profit" as Jesus used it. Many, many changes are made in the text, but the word "profit" as Jesus used it, and as Arthur Frederick Sheldon followed it, remains the same in the modern texts such as the Moffat and the Revised Standard Version.

The word profit is used interchangeably with benefit and advantage in both the French and German languages. There is no more difficulty understanding the word "profit" as Arthur Frederick Sheldon used it, in either French or German than there is in English.

Are we to retreat from the ambiguous attacks of socialists and collectivists with their deceptively humanitarian and pseudo-selfless fronts, and drop the IDEA of profit along with the word itself, or have we the manhood to stand openly for what we believe in our hearts? It would be wonderful if every Rotary Club in the United States would officially adopt the slogan Arthur Frederick Sheldon used in 1910—and for it is true that "He profits most who serves best." And it would be a wiser and better world that recognized the truth.

And God said, Let there be light, and there was light.—Genesis 1:3

The light of nature, the light of science, and the light of reason, are but as darkness, compared with the divine light which shines only from the word of God.—John R. Lord

Walk in the light, and thou shalt see Thy path, though thorny, bright; For God by grace shall dwell with thee

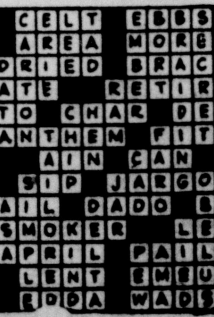

And God Himself is Light. —Bernard Baruch

In darkness there is no choice. It is light that enables us to see the differences between things; and it is Christ that gives us light.—J. C. and A. W. Hare

Final Plans Made for 21st Annual Central West Texas Fair at Haskell

Final plans for the twenty-first renewal of the Central West Texas Fair which is slated in Haskell on October 6-8, are being completed this week according to officials and department heads of the association.

Buildings and grounds are being placed in condition for the opening day which is expected to be the largest single day in the fair's history. School children will be admitted free on that day, and several area schools have indicated they will dismiss classes.

The parade, always a colorful event in the past, will officially open the fair at noon on Thursday, October 6. Advance entries for the parade indicate a spectacular array of high school and college bands, decorated floats, horses and riders, and school pep squads that will make the West Texas' finest parade.

Advance requests for exhibit space this year have exceeded those of past years, and one of the largest assortments of agriculture, livestock, culinary, textile, art, hobbies, curio, and poultry will be on display at this year's exposition.

Expected to lead the show will be the exhibits of the area 4-H and FFA clubs, who will compete for increase premiums.

Plans were completed this week for an expanded automobile and implement show that will display the latest farm equipment and the newer models of all makes of automobiles.

Open competition in the various divisions of the fair will attract entries from over the state, and officials are utilizing every available space to take care of the expanded program.

A major event this year will be the horse show with judging of quarter horses on October 6 and the palomino division on October 7.

Included for the second year will be the special cowboy events which include junior cowboy and cowgirl riding contests, and senior cutting horse, roping and reining contests.

On the midway will be one of the largest carnival attractions ever presented by the fair.

Elmer G. Johnson, President of Harlingen State Bank, Harlingen, Texas, writes, on February 20, 1948: "Please send another bottle of Liquid Garlic, also send a bottle to my sister-in-law, Mrs. Hulda C. Dutton, 45 Atwater Terrace, Springfield, Massachusetts.

"I have some good reports to make on the effectiveness of garlic used. Mr. Turner, Texaco dealer here has taken two bottles and is much better, his blood pressure down about 60 points. Mrs. W. F. Nelson, of San Benito, who was in bad shape, is also very much better and her blood pressure down considerably. This Garlic works, and you are doing a fine job of producing it for benefit of those suffering from high blood pressure or heart trouble."

THERE I WAS, SITTING ON A TELEPHONE WIRE, MINDING MY OWN BUSINESS. WHEN ALL AT ONCE A BLAST FROM A SHOTGUN KNOCKED ME RIGHT OFF MY PERCH

WELL, SIR, I CAME OUT PRETTY GOOD—ONLY A FEW TAIL FEATHERS MISSING—BUT THE HUNTER THAT MISSED ME CLIPPED A COUPLE OF TELEPHONE WIRES. ONE WAS MY FAVORITE ROOSTING PLACE, TOO.

Hamlin Garden Club Opened Season With Address by Mrs. L. P. Johnson, Abilene

Hamlin Garden Club members opened the 1949-50 season when they met in the home of Mrs. J. W. McCrary and heard an address by Mrs. L. P. Johnson, of Abilene, president of Texas District Eight.

Mrs. McCrary and Mrs. Luther Marr greeted guests at the door, and Miss Janet Bonner was at the piano during the social session.

The table was laid with a white organdy and lace cloth, with a floor length ruffle. A crystal punch bowl was placed at one end of the table and two crystal candelabra at the other end. A huge crystal tray, covered with pink angel food squares surrounding a bowl of queen's wreath dubonnet nosegays was in the center of the table.

Tapers of pale pink provided a light note for contrast with the dubonnet tulle. Near the candelabra were graceful figurines holding flowers of pink queen's wreath. These were entwined with pink tulle dotted with dubonnet nosegays.

Pink punch was served with a variety of salted nuts. Mrs. M. T. York presided at the punch bowl and Mrs. Dick Maberry served sandwiches with Mrs. A. A. Hackley, Mrs. H. O. Cassle and Mrs. Fed Britton assisting.

Following the tea Mrs. Luther Marr gave the invocation. Mrs. C. G. Green introduced the guest speaker, Mrs. L. P. Johnson, who spoke on "The Five Gardeners." With Mrs. Johnson was Mrs. Harold G. Cook, also of Abilene.

Clothing Leaders of HD Clubs in Meeting

Clothing leaders from Jones County Home Demonstration clubs met in the office of Miss Loretta Allen, county home demonstration agent, last Wednesday and discussed mending of clothing.

Miss Allen told the group that a tiny hole can make a garment or household article practically useless. A well done mend can make it like new again, she said.

Various types of patches were discussed, and how to mend with a press-on patch was demonstrated. Leaders will give the demonstration before their respective clubs.

Present for the meeting were: Mrs. Eva Black and Mrs. M. Mc-Bride of Avoca; Mrs. Charlie Myatt and Mrs. Borden Manly of Willow Creek; Mrs. Novel Baize and Mrs. Oran Brigham of Tuxedo; Mrs. F. C. Dangers Cited in Use of Raw Milk Urge Herd Tests

Undulant fever or Malta fever, a disease contracted from cattle, goats or sheep which are infected with contagious abortion, is being reported sporadically throughout Texas and the nation, according to Dr. Geo. W. Cox, state health officer. This indicates malta fever to be a public health problem and the attendant need of more general recognition by the public to the disease.

Undulant fever is so called because of the wave-like variations in temperature. The symptoms include rise in temperature, loss of weight and strength, chills, sweats and joint pains. The disease has rather a low mortality rate, but because symptoms may persist for a number of weeks and even months before normal and strength are restored.

In Texas, the goat, horse and cows are the usual spreaders of this disease. The germs of undulant fever enter the body through the mouth or skin. Therefore, care should be used in handling animals known to be infected and dairy products from the same sources should be pasteurized, if used. More men acquire this disease than women and adults seem more likely to have it than children. More cases are found in rural areas than in the cities.

Delaware is the second smallest state in the Union.

The Hamlin firm is one of 6,000 Ford dealers throughout the nation that have entered the contest during September and October.

Seven hundred prizes totaling $100,000 will be awarded winners in the safety contest. The prizes are 25 new Fords, including five Ford trucks; 25 $1,000 U. S. Savings Bonds; 100 $100 bonds, 200 $50 bonds and 500 $25 bonds.

Free checks will be made on brakes, steering, headlights, rear and stop lights, tires, windshield wipers, muffler, glass, horn, and rear view mirror.

The Hamlin Motor Co. will place a safe driver reflector insignia on the vehicle inspected and the motorist will be given an entry blank to participate in the contest.

The motorist must then complete in no more than 50 additional words the following statement:

A&M College in Wing Collecting Business

An appeal is being made to Texas hunters to send mourning dove wings to the Texas Cooperative Wildlife Unit, Texas A. and M. technicians to determine how many wings it is possible for wildlife of the birds were hatched this past summer, and thereby know if a successful nesting season occurred.

Collecting dove wings at A and M is a part of a coordinated research program initiated by the U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service due to a noticeable decline in the dove population during the past few years. All wildlife conservation agencies in the Central and Southeastern United States are cooperating in this program.

Hunters are urged to aid in this program by sending the right wing of doves to the Texas Cooperative Wildlife Unit, A. and M. College, College Station. Each wing should be marked with the date and location where each dove was taken.

Mrs. V. H. Embrey has returned to her home in San Antonio after having spent several days in Hamlin as a guest of Mrs. Rosie Embrey and daughter, Viola.

Get clothes really clean with
LIVE-WATER WASHING!

LIVE-WATER ACTION

There's nothing else like it! See it demonstrated

Frigidaire's exclusive Live-Water action produces rolling, penetrating currents of hot, sudsy water that washes clothes through and through. No pulling or yanking. And clothes are washing in water all the time—not half-in, half-out. The same Live-Water action that washes clothes cleaner rinses them brighter (twice!) in fresh, clean water. And the Rapidry-Spin gets clothes so dry some are ready for immediate ironing!

ONLY FRIGIDAIRE HAS ALL THESE!

- Underwater Suds Distributor
- Loads from the top, full width
- Top is flat for use as table
- No bolting down, put it anywhere
